The Sin Chair Drama

1. Put a chair in the middle with sign that says...
'Nomo pudim binga langa dijan!/Don't Touch)
2. Person walks along and get stuck on the chair
(could have Satan tempting them and changes it over to nogudbalawei/Sin).
3. One person at a time walks along and tries pulling her off.
4. But the person still gets stuck.
5. Then the last person that comes along with God's word and show the person stuck on the chair. And the person becomes free.
Or someone comes along and stands on the chair and puts his hands out like Jesus dying on the cross and the mob stuck to the chair falls down. Then gets up and skips away.

Here are youtube clips of examples.

I have mostly seen it being mimed out.
